Good afternoon Eagle Families,

Kansas State Assessments Begin this Week

All students begin testing season this week on the Kansas State Assessments. Any help you can give in making sure that your student gets plenty of sleep and comes to school with a fully charged Macbook is greatly appreciated. This is each student's opportunity to show what they have learned this year and serves as a reflection of our educational program. We want students to perform their best. The schedule for Math and Science Assessments is listed below in the "Upcoming Events" list. Thank you for your continued support.

STEAM Night Follow-up

A big thank you to all involved in making our STEAM Night a huge success right before the break. We had 349 students, parents, and members of the community in attendance! An amazing turnout. If you haven't seen the writeup from the communications department yet, check it out at <http://bit.ly/2F4GoW3>
