Good afternoon Eagle Families,

Parent-Teacher Conferences This Week

Parent-Teacher Conferences are coming up this week Thursday, February 7. Teachers will be set up similarly to the fall conferences from 5:00-8:00 pm in the main gym, auxiliary gym, and the cafeteria/MPR. We hope you'll make plans to join us. All students are encouraged to attend conferences with their parents if possible. We think it's important for students to be a part of conferences discussing their learning journey.

Hocker Grove Career Fair

This Friday, Hocker Grove students will have the opportunity to spend the day learning about careers. This is a follow-up to lessons they've been doing online during their Eagle Hour class learning about how their strengths and interests combine giving them some suggestions for future careers. Over the last couple of weeks, students had the chance to sign up for six presentations to take place across the day (three in the morning and three in the afternoon) from 75 volunteers in a variety of career fields including health and human services, art, education, business/marketing, finance, entertainment, etc. A committee of teachers have done an outstanding job of planning for the day. We think it will be beneficial and enjoyable for your student. Please be sure to ask them about it when they get home on Friday afternoon.
